

CALL SULZER IN JOHN DOE PROBE

Former Governor Says Break With Murphy Was Result of His Attempt to Stop Hold Up of Contractor.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—William Sulzer, deposed governor of New York, testifying in the John Doe graft inquiry, quoted Sen. O'Gorman as his authority for the statement that James E. Gaffney was the man who tried to force a campaign contribution of $150,000 from Contractor James Stewart. The latter was a bidder of the large canal contracts aggregating $3,000,000. Stewart has already testified that a man representing himself as Gaffney demanded a contribution of five per cent of the contracts.

Incidentally, Sulzer uncovered a feud between Murphy and O'Gorman and showed that O'Gorman by his own admission was acting as attorney for Stewart. Sulzer at the instance of Dist. Atty. Whitman waived immunity before testifying.

The former governor, full of his hatred for Murphy, went minutely into the details of the Stewart incident which he declared to have been the foundation of his break with Murphy and the indirect cause of his impeachment.

On Dec. 18, 1912, two weeks before his inauguration as governor, Sulzer said, he received a telegram from George H. McGuire informing him that a special meeting of the canal board had been called to inspect the Stewart bids which were much lower than any of the others, and hinting that the bids might be rejected. Sulzer promptly telegraphed the board asking that action be withheld. On the following day John H. Delaney, intimate friend of Charles F. Murphy, called on Sulzer and said: "Congressman, you have spilled the beans. The 'Chief' (Murphy) is wild. I have never seen him so worked up. I am afraid it is all off between you. My God, congressman, why did you do it?"

As a result of the conversation Delaney called Murphy on the telephone so that Sulzer might talk to him. It developed that Murphy asked Sulzer to meet him in Delmonico's the same afternoon. At Delmonico's Sulzer found Murphy with two friends whom he left to take the governor-elect into a side room, where he requested him with great agitation regarding his interference in the canal contract matter.

"I'm attending to that matter myself," he quoted Murphy as saying, "and I want you to keep your hands off."

MRS. EDWARD B. McLEAN AND HER ONLY SON.

"The mother of America's richest little boy, Mrs. Edward B. McLean of Washington, D. C., doesn't find time to tango—and, furthermore, she wouldn't dance it if she did have oceans of time.

But she does have many hours each day in which to interest herself in the welfare of poor children. It was she who established free pure milk stations in Washington.

WOULDN'T KEEP DOG IN WOMEN'S WARD

Mayor Smith Promises Some Changes in City Jail—Starts After Better Beds.

ELKHART, Ind., Jan. 22.—"I wouldn't keep my dog in either one of the rooms used as women's wards in the city jail," declared Mayor E. E. Smith Wednesday as he proceeded to call up Herman Borneman, chairman of the board of directors of the General hospital, to see if arrangements could be made for securing beds formerly used by the hospital to place in the rooms.

Learning that Mr. Borneman was out of the city, the mayor next took the matter up with Miss Maloney, matron of the hospital, and received her promise for a report on what could be done.

"We are renovating the city building from top to bottom," said the mayor, "and when we get through we will not be ashamed to have any committee from the charitable organizations or the grand jury visit it and report on conditions."

Special attention is to be paid to the rooms used as wards for women and children. New furniture is to be secured for them, including beds.

DO NOTHING EASIEST WAY TO BECOME LOST

Neglect Keeps Men From Accepting Christ, Says Rev. A. E. Thomas in Sermon.

"If you want to be saved, believe in the Lord Jesus Christ. If you want to be lost, do nothing," said Rev. A. E. Thomas Wednesday evening in his sermon at the revival services at the First Brethren church. There is nothing that keeps you from accepting Christ so much as neglect of good impulses. Neglect is the cause of all disease of the soul the same as of the body. If you could go to the lower regions tonight and ask the inhabitants why they are there, they would answer, 'I neglected'.

This evening Rev. Mr. Thomas will use as his subject, "Breaking Out of Jail". Friday evening he will speak on "Heroes and Cowards".

INVESTIGATION IS ASKED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Immediate investigation of the Colorado coal and the Michigan copper miners strikes is urged in a letter sent to members of congress Wednesday by Pres. Gompers of the American Federation of Labor. He cited as precedents the federal inquiries into the Homestead, Pa., and Paint Creek, W. Va., strikes and added: "It is known that great fundamental rights are being ruthlessly trampled under foot. The great cause of justice, liberty and humanity will be served by a thorough investigation."
